

Your Assignment:

You will now pick a simple task and explain how to execute that task. Be sure to:

- consider your audience (what do they know/ don't know)
- organize your explanation in a logical way
- use transitions (first, then, next, step 1, etc.)
- have a introduction, body, and conclusion
- use precise language
- use at least 250 words

Class Brainstorm:

How to...

- train for a marathon
- put all three kids to bed without going crazy
- program a website
- change brake pads
- fix a flat on a car/bike
- save money while grocery shopping
- use less electricity
- pack for a backing packing trip for the Zion Narrows
- shoot a free throw
- throw a football
- kick a field goal
- cook spaghetti
- milk a cow
- raise a goat
- stalk a deer
- butcher an elk
- build/make something
- research your family history
- perform a snowboarding trick
- prepare for a math test
- drive from point A to Point B (give directions)

- braid hair
- tie a shoe
- sleep
- yo-yo trick
- wall flip
- swim
- backflip
- to fly an airplane
- play basketball
- how to make a sandwich
- break up with a boy/girlfriend
- cook
- draw a ...
- stick shift
- ride a bike
- kill a zombie
- hack a computer